

With reference to 02-98, the need for an amateur band located between the 3.5 and 7.0 MHz bands is vitally important to the success of their purpose to provide emergency communications. I am strongly in favor of this addition. I would suggest 50KHz of the band for CW/digital use and 100KHz for voice.